

Immigration & Justice For Our Neighbors

Immigration & Justice For Our Neighbors

Publisher: Celery City Books

116 pages, $10.00

Anthology edited by: Jennifer Clark & Miriam Downey

Release Date: April 19, 2017

Through poetry, essays, and interviews, 36 contributors—many from Kalamazoo and throughout Michigan—explore the theme of immigration and help us reflect on what it means to be a neighbor. How do we show or not show hospitality to our neighbors? What does it mean to be a foreigner, a traveler in the world today?

In a time when fear and confusion are erupting throughout the nation, the symphony of voices contained in this book provide balm, strength, and inspiration to help us be the welcoming neighbors we are meant to be.

Upcoming Readings/Events:

Immigration & Justice For Our Neighbors Launch

@ Arcus Center for Social Justice, Kalamazoo College, 205 Monroe St.

Date: 4/19/2017 @ 6:30 p.m.

JFON-Kalamazoo invites the community to celebrate the release of this important anthology. Meet some of the contributors and listen to them read their works. Food & refreshments. Anthologies for sale for $10.00.

Immigration & Justice For Our Neighbors June Reading

@ Bookbug, 3019 Oakland Drive, Kalamazoo, MI 49008

Date: 6/7/2017 @ 5:30 p.m.

Immigrant to Neighbor: Journeying through Hope and Fear

@ Western Michigan University Bernhard Center (Brown & Gold Room) 1903 W. Michigan Ave, and in collaboration with WMU Center for the Study of Ethics in Society. A reading and panel discussion.

Date: 10/12/2017 @ 7 p.m.

Proceeds from anthology sales benefit Justice For Our Neighbors-

Kalamazoo (JFON) ... a ministry of hospitality that welcomes immigrants into our communities by providing affordable, high-quality immigration legal services, and engaging in advocacy for immigrants' rights.

JFON-Kalamazoo
kzoo_assist@jfonwestmichigan.org